“Artist wins international teddy bear of the year award.”

Kim Russell recently won a Teddy Bear of the Year (Toby) Industry's Choice Award for her piece "The Frog Prince".

“These awards are often called the ‘Oscars’ of the collectable teddy bear world, like a great film, a great teddy bear transcends the medium and becomes art”.

Kim has been invited to attend both the TBAI and the IDEX teddy bear shows in the USA this year. She has confirmed that she will be attending the Gold Coast International Teddy Bear, Bead, and Doll Fair in June 2007.

Russell Bear's new website is now available where you can access Kim's new creations as well as her past works and achievements. You can also register for the Russell Bears Members Club if you would like priority access to all her new bears as they are posted on the site at www.russellbears.com.
